

SWORN TRANSLATORS AND INTERPRETERS

in the Consular District of Marseille

The sworn translators and interpreters (traducteurs-interprètes experts-judiciaires) on this list have informed the Consulate General that they are licensed to translate and interpret for the various French courts. A more complete listing can be found in the telephone directory yellow pages under "TRADUCTEURS".

Translations of documents intended for legal use in the United States must have the translator's seal and signature authenticated by "Apostille" at a French court of appeals. The translator should help you in obtaining the "Apostille". An information sheet explaining the procedures for obtaining an "Apostille" is available from this office.

The Consulate General assumes no responsibility for the professional ability or integrity of the individuals or firms listed herein.
